

129

How should a follower of Christ view the Old Testament laws?

130

Jesus brings fulfillment to the Old Testament Scriptures.

- Matthew 5:17-20

131

The teachings of Jesus and the rest of the New Testament give the clear instruction on what has been fulfilled and how it has been fulfilled.

- Mark 2:23-28
- Matthew 12:9-14
- Luke 13:10-17
- John 7:14-24
- Mark 7:14-23

132

Lack of faith in God leading to disobedience kept God's people from entering into His promised rest.

- Hebrews 3:7-19

133

God gives people today to hear the Gospel and to respond by faith allowing us to enter into God's rest.

- Hebrews 4:1-8

134

Followers of Christ keep the fulfilled law of the Sabbath when we cease from our efforts to attain righteousness and rest in the finished work of our Lord Jesus Christ.

- Hebrews 4:9-11

135

A reminder of the power and authority of God's Word and the sufficiency of Christ.

- Hebrews 4:12-16

136

In Christ we are set free from the philosophies and traditions, including religious traditions, of the world.

- Colossians 2:8-10

137

Jesus Christ, in His perfect and finished work, has fulfilled the requirements of the physical practices of circumcision, food restrictions, the prescribed feasts and the Sabbath.

- Colossians 2:8-23
- Romans 14:5-12

138

An observation: Many of the nations of the world were called into account by God and judgment pronounced and executed on them for violating God's standard of righteousness. Not one of them is condemned for not keeping the Sabbath day.
