

Something Old, Something New

The Nazarite vow of the Old Testament reminds us of the value of times of deliberate focus on our commitment to God.

- ¹⁸ After this, Paul stayed many days longer and then took leave of the brothers and set sail for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchreae he had cut his hair, for he was under a vow. Acts 18:18 (ESV)

The Nazarite vow of the Old Testament reminds us of the value of times of deliberate focus on our commitment to God.

- ¹ And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, When either a man or a woman makes a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to the LORD, ³ he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink. He shall drink no vinegar made from wine or strong drink and shall not drink any juice of grapes or eat grapes, fresh or dried. ⁴ All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, not even the seeds or the skins. ⁵ "All the days of his vow of separation, no razor shall touch his head. Until the time is completed for which he separates himself to the LORD, he shall be holy. He shall let the locks of hair of his head grow long. ⁶ "All the days that he separates himself to the LORD he shall not go near a dead body. ⁷ Not even for his father or for his mother, for brother or sister, if they die, shall he make himself unclean, because his separation to God is on his head. ⁸ All the days of his separation he is holy to the LORD. Numbers 6:1-8 (ESV)

The Nazarite vow of the Old Testament reminds us of the value of times of deliberate focus on our commitment to God.

- What does God think of me?
- What controls me?
- Who is the subject of my greatest love and devotion?
