

In God We Trust

The way of the world is to trust in money and material possessions.

Money and material possessions fall short when it comes to eternal matters.

Our stewardship of money and material possessions exposes our true integrity.

• “One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in that which is another’s, who will give you that which is your own?” (Luke 16:10–12, ESV)

Keep money and material possessions in their rightful place.

• “No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.” (Luke 16:13, ESV)
