He Knows

There are attributes of God that followers of Christ would readily affirm but regularly deny in practice. The most common expression of this relates to the omniscience of God. This is the truth that God sees and knows all things. "But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you." (Matthew 6:6, ESV) "For God will bring every deed into judgment, with every secret thing, whether good or evil." (Ecclesiastes 12:14, ESV)

Gossip, slander, and deceit are prime expressions of this denial. The furtive look, the voice lowered to a whisper betrays the belief that we are flying under even God's radar. Walking on the fringes of sinful expressions of affection and passions and then indulging in these expressions brush aside what we would affirm about God's omniscience. But here is the truth, "You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence." (Psalm 90:8, ESV)

Yet the omniscience of God can and should be a wonderful, motivating, and comforting reality. God knows everything about you yet still loves you. God knows the circumstances of your life completely and has provided all you need to navigate through them. We find great assurance in that all the time and eternity is in God's mind, and He has made preparation for His people throughout eternity. Preparing people to meet Jesus introduces them to God and then helps them grow to know the One Who sees, knows and cares.

All of us need to grow in our understanding and acceptance of God's omniscience. Spend some time reading and meditating on Psalm 139. Come before God with those "secret" things that He already fully knows and find freedom through confession and repentance. Learn to walk in the assurance of His omniscience.
