Using Legacy Verses to Pray for Others - Part 2

By Sue Shepard

In last month's newsletter, several "Legacy verses" were shared from different ladies at our church. Here are more of those verses contributed that are being prayed over family members. Perhaps you have discovered new verses for you use for your own family members!

Karen W. (2 children, 2 grandchildren)

Zephaniah 3: 17

The LORD your God is in your midst,
a mighty one who will save;
he will rejoice over you with gladness;
he will quiet you by his love;
he will exult over you with loud singing.

Psalms 139: 13-14

For you formed my inward parts;
you knitted me together in my mother's womb.
I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Wonderful are your works;
my soul knows and praises you very well.

Linda C. (2 children, 2 step-children, 5 grandchildren)

Hebrews 13:8

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Acts 26:17-18

"I will deliver you from the Jewish people, as well as from the Gentiles, to whom I now send you, to open their eyes, in order to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in Me."

Lennora B. (2 children, 3 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren)

Philippians 4:13

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Chris M. (4 children, 1 grandchild)

Philippians 4: 4-7

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone.

The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Mary B. (2 children, 3 grandchildren)

Colossians 1: 9b-11

... we have not stopped praying for you. We continually ask God to fill you with the knowledge of His will through all the wisdom and understanding that the spirit goes, so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God, being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience...

Tips for Summer Bible Reading

By Paula Weber

Summer time often breaks the rhythms we have during the year. Because of this, sometimes our Bible reading time is different. Instead of fighting that, let's lean into it!!

Attach your reading time to something you enjoy! Like a cup of ice tea or lemonade on the patio. Bring a blanket to your favorite park and read your Bible there!

Or, try to listen and walk. Listen to the Bible on your phone with some ear buds on while you walk your favorite trail.

Grab a friend and sit on the front porch and take turns reading out loud while you hear the birds sing!

Reading our Bible is not about perfection. It is about being in God's presence.

"Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all that fills it; let the field exult, and everything in it! Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy."

Psalm 96:11-12

Valley Baptist's Connected Women's Ministry Team is devoted to helping women live out the Gospel through their God-given design and purpose. Our passion is to see women grow in knowing and living out the Word of God through biblical study, prayer, special events, mentoring, and serving others in the love of Christ.
